the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1.2 million (Office of National Statistics 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's services. The strategy is based on the principle of 'active ageing', which is the process of enabling older people to live longer, healthier, and more active lives. Before . . . . . Bonfire . . . . . After

The Bonfire was just one of the highlights of Spirit Week. It started with the tricycle race, a snake dance around the school and then the Bonfire was lit. The tug-of-wars began with the freshmen against the sophomores, and the juniors against the seniors. The winners of both tugged and the sophomores won. Many things were going on during this week besides the Bonfire.

There was the pep session, the games, the parade, the hall-decorating, and the dress-up days. Mon. was "Old Folks Day." Tues. was "Twinkie Day" and slave auction; the games took place on this day also. Wed. was "Star Day" and for student council members it was slave day. Thurs. was "Kiddie Day" and that night was the bonfire. Fri. was "School Colors Day" and the parade. The big event of all happened Fri. night, the game.

Homecoming '77

The climax of Spirit Week was the crowning of our Homecoming Queen of 1977, Lori Frazee, and of Mr. Basketball himself—Chuck Shropshire.

Senior

On this day of April 22, 1977, all these seniors gathered together to see just what each one had accomplished over his school years. At the banquet, awards were given for their talents and special abilities. Some of the awards given included: best legs, tallest, cutest smile, best car, like to have the most kids, sexiest body, and many others. After the banquet, there was a dance and a few other private activities.

They really look like they're having fun.

Rollin' Along

This year both the Yearbook and the High School Band had skating parties. They both used the skating parties to raise money. The yearbook used the money to help pay for this year's yearbook and the band used the money for new band uniforms. The parties were very successful and everyone enjoyed himself. Teachers, as well as students, came to skate. The Yearbook's skating parties were for high school only. The Band's skating parties were open to both high school and middle school. Everyone had fun, but remember when Mrs. Hasse broke her arm?

It's time to take a rest from roller skating.

Nights Are Forever

The 1977 Junior-Senior Prom was held in the Anna Maria Room of the House of Lynwood in Illinois, Friday, May 20th. But the prom didn't end there, because plans were made for Saturday to go to Turkey Run or the Dunes.

Starting out the evening was picture-taking by Victor Studios. The portrait background was beautiful and appropriate for the prom theme, "Nights are Forever."

Dinner was served at 7:30. It began with fruit cocktail and salad as an appetizer. Then came the main course, if anyone was still hungry. The entree consisted of roast beef, baked potato, roll and corn.

Seated are Junior Class Sponsors: Mr. Brindley and wife, and Mrs. Doffin and husband. Standing: Paty Kistner and date.

After dinner was the "Garter Removal Ceremony." All participating gentlemen had to take a chair along with their dates to the dance floor and form a circle. The gentlemen knelt and removed the garters from their dates' legs.

Then came the crowning of the Queen and King. Candidates for Prom Queen were: Lori Frazee, Leslie Mellul, Cheri Mender, LaVerna Torrence and Betsy York. Candidates for Prom King were: John Anderson, Jay Hollar, Bob Jubera, Mike Shanks and Chuck Shropshire. The reigning Queen, Laverna Torrence and King, Jay Hollar. The theme song "Nights are Forever" played while Queen, King and court danced.

Party favors were given: They were wine glasses with the encribed theme "Nights are Forever" and maroon stone necklaces. Centerpieces were given away to couples with a yellow square under their napkins.

The prom was enjoyed by all who attended. It will be a memorable occasion for attending 1977 graduates.

"A Journey of a Thousand

Commencement Ceremonies started at 2 p.m. Sunday, May 29. The theme of this year's graduation was "A Journey of a Thousand Miles Starts With One Step." Graduating girls wore blue and the boys wore red. Vice President Leslie Muelle presented the class gifts, a new wooden podium and a portable television, to the school. Valedictorian Tammy Briggs and Salutatorian Jill Neary made speeches at the ceremony. As senior class sponsors, Mrs. Thompson and Mr. Young read off the names of the graduates while Mr. Paquin and Dr. Crabb handed out diplomas. Student speakers Shelly Casten and Lori Frazee spoke as the class of '77 assembled for the last time. The band played Fanfare and Processional as the graduates marched to their seats. Hundreds of people crowded the gymnasium to watch the seniors graduate. The ceremony ended when the crowd congratulated the graduates.

"Watch Your Step" and "The Diary of Anne Frank" were the two major drama productions presented at Hanover this year. Both of the plays were directed by Mr. Gene Rajchel. Mark Doty and Jeannine Tortorici starred in "Watch Your Step." Other cast members included: Mike Lawrence, Tom Sternberg, Elyn Heckaman, Ronnie Gracz, and Annette Engle. The starring roles in "The Diary of Anne Frank" were played by Sue Tomaszewski and Jeff Schweitzer. Other cast members included: Elyn Heckaman, Jeannine Tortorici, Kathy Wachowiak, Tari Spurr, Mark Doty, Greg Gracz, Rick Jacobsen and Rick Wachowiak.

At the Thespians award banquet, or the "Biggie Awards" as they were known by the Thespians, several awards were given. The graduating seniors were given plaques as mementos of their Thespian activities. Best Supporting Actress was presented to Annette Engle, for the role in "Watch Your Step." Greg Gracz won the Supporting Actor for his part in "The Diary of Anne Frank." The title of Best Actress was awarded to Sue Tomaszewski and Jeff Schweitzer won the Best Actor Award. Three other awards were given to Thespian members. They were Male and Female Thespian, received by Mark Doty and Jeannine Tortorici. International Thespian was received by Jon Heichel. Other awards were given to Rick Smith and Todd Teets, for their outstanding advertising campaign for "The Diary of Anne Frank." An additional award was presented to Mouchi (the cat) for Best Animal Performance.

Yearbook meetings are usually held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after school. These meetings run pretty smoothly, except when the staff members show up, then it is total chaos. As the deadlines grow closer and closer, people are frantically running around trying to find pictures and write copy to get their pages done. But on normal days, staff members are usually scattered throughout the room trying to make Mr. Kahn believe that they are really working.

Our fearless leader, Mr. Kahn, has the job of trying to keep order in our meetings, and he is pretty good at it. He also does other things like getting fund raising projects set up.

The National Honor Society has been an organization that honors its members, but this year the members decided to add something to this honor. This year the National Honor Society's members decided to add service projects to their schedule. Many different activities are being considered for the society to serve the school and the community. Next year, the society hopes to begin its service work.

One activity this year was the annual Senior-Faculty basketball game. Proceeds from this game were used to buy pins, certificates, and membership cards for the new members. The rest was used to present a unique induction ceremony. In addition to this year's Honor Society program was the election of an honorary member. Mr. Paquin received the privilege of being the first honorary member inducted into the National Honor Society.

Rick Wachowiak, Sandy Zimmerman, and Rene Partain discuss plans for next year's Honor Society.

The National Junior Honor Society is an organization that also gives honor to its members. These members are selected from students in seventh through tenth grade. They must meet high standards in leadership, service, character, and citizenship. A high grade average is also a requirement.

The president of this year's Junior Honor Society is Dan Korthauer. He, along with Vice-president Gretchen Miller, Secretary Sandy Zimmerman, and Treasurer Rene Partain, directed the activities of the group. This year's activities included the induction of new members and the Senior-Faculty Basketball game.

Wildcats Tom Dayberry, Steve Magnant, Jeff Gross, and Steve Seils watch as their teammate, Joe Stark, tries to jump higher than his opponent.

Through their patience, practice, and team work, the Junior Varsity won the Porter County Conference trophy.

The Junior Varsity basketball team was victorious this year in taking the Porter County Conference trophy in three games by beating Washington (57-34), Hebron (49-43), and Boone Grove (49-48).

"P.C.C. was our goal for a long time, we were very happy that we won it. The boys were excited about palying in Valparaiso. It was a new experience for them."

"In the early season we were plagued by poor shooting from the whole team. But we got it together and won nine out of our last 10 games, which gave us 15 wins and 6 losses."

"They played well as a team unit not so much as individuals. I think that is what made them play so well," said Coach DeMuth.

Waiting impatiently for the ball to come out of the hoop are Wildcats Steve Seils, Tom Dayberry, and Steve Magnant.

George VanCuren Puts "the moves" on his opponent.

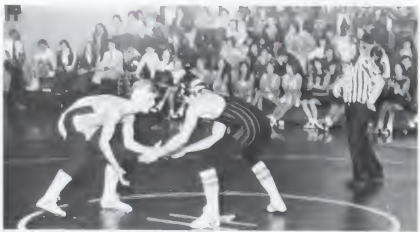

We had a poor season this year, but it was also a rebuilding season after losing five seniors to graduation last year.

Senior Rich Kurzeja lead the team with an 8-3 overall record, Allen Gold, Dave Rumus and Craig Moelman all had winning seasons.

"If we get four or five good eighth graders as freshman we should have a good team." Next year's schedule will remain about the same.

"We had good enthusiasm from most wrestlers. But we didn't have enough of that extra it takes to be champions."

"If we can keep junior high students out for wrestling we can build," commented Coach Schatzman.

George Mick moves right in.

Coldest winter

The winter of '77 was one of the coldest in the history of our area. Temperatures dropped below -20 many days. Then the snow came. It snowed day and night. It drifted higher and higher. Then the sacred event happened; school was called off.

Eight whole days off. Just because three-foot snow drifts covered a lot of roads and temperatures were so cold that you couldn't go outside for more than fifteen minutes without freezing. Other factors, like the gas companies running out of fuel to heat the buildings, helped keep us out too.

Every morning you would wake up, and listen to the radio only to find out that you could have slept for another hour or two. Days were being called off right and left. But finally, after three weeks, it came to an end, as all good things must. Even though there was still snow piled high and it was still pretty cold, we had to come back to school. But a lot of people were glad to come back, after all; you can get to miss the old school after a while . . . can't you?

Tom Enloe, Don Piening and Terry Enloe show what can be done with a little snow.

in area history

David Bougie tries out the 'grave' dug for Mr. Roller by his team.

Drifting snow covers lower portion of the golf course sign.

Varsity basketball players dug Mr. Roller's grave during practice.

Mr. Brindley, you really should improve your table manners.

Working together Juniors

During the Spirit week the Junior Class worked together to decorate their hall and float for the parade. Their efforts paid off, as their hall theme, "Follow the Yellow Brick Road to Victory," and their float theme, "Stomp-Em," won them first place. Along with these festivities, the junior girls won the powder puff football game. Mr. John Brindley, history teacher, served as their coach.

The class is working together to raise money for the prom. They raised $1,000 in sales of candy. Jenny Casten and Andrea Schreiber were the highest in sales. The movie, which they sponsored on Dec. 20, "Shakiest Gun in the West" also gave a net profit toward the prom. The prom, "Nights Are Forever Without You," was held at the House of Lynwood.

Sophomores get

Sophomores get an early start on the "78" prom. They have formed a prom site selection committee with the help of their sponsors, Mrs. Gail Lemon and Mr. Richard McClellan.

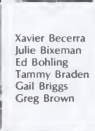

For the second year in a row sophomores have elected the same people to hold their class offices. They are: Tim Nolan—President, Ed Shroka—Vice President, Jim Keilman—Secretary, and Steve Watson—Treasurer.

This year the sophomores received their class rings with two newer styles available to them.

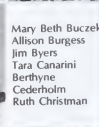

The sophomores sold magazines, conducted car washes and held semi-weekly bake sales to raise money for their class treasury.

During homecoming week, sophomores received third place for their float with the clever "CB" theme: "Breaker, Breaker, the Hawks." Jennifer Hudspeth represented them in the homecoming court.

This yearbook is about togetherness. We as your yearbook staff wanted this yearbook to bring everyone in this school together. And we wanted you to be able to remember all the good times we've had at Hanover.

We sincerely hope that this book will bring all of this back to you in the years to come. As the cover says, "Together We Will Always Be ...."
